

December 12, 2022

The board of Cessna Township Trustees opened in regular session on Monday, December 12, 2022 at 7:00 P.M. at the township hall with the fiscal officer and all trustees present. The minutes from the previous meeting were read along with the presentation of the monthly financial reports. Mr. Eibling moved to accept all reports as presented. Mr. Hull seconded the motion with all voting aye.

The board welcomed McKenna Eibling and Anne-Marie Minter, students from Hardin Northern. The students are attending a local government board meeting as part of their history class syllabus.

Mark Schwemer noted in his zoning report that the yard of the Pavlovic property on TR 90 has been mowed and noxious weeds have been taken care of as requested in the zoning violation letter sent out earlier. He has also responded to the realty agent of a sale property within the township about lot sizes required.

The trustees asked the zoning officer to proceed with completing an updating of the township zoning rules and regulations as per the current zoning text requires. Mr. Schwemer noted he will proceed with the update.

The trustees reviewed the results of the countywide cemetery rates survey that was completed by Cessna Township last month. Upon review, Mr. Vermillion moved to adjust non-resident lot sales as follows effective January 1, 2023:

- Non-Resident single grave lot $500
- Non -Resident two grave lot $1,000
- Non-Resident open/closing fee $600
- Non-Resident cremation burial fee $250

Mr. Hull seconded the motion with all voting aye.
