

September 12, 2022

The board of Cessna Township Trustees opened in regular session on Monday, September 12, 2022 at 7:00 P.M. at the township hall with the fiscal officer and all trustees present. The minutes from the previous meeting were read along with the presentation of the monthly financial reports. Mr. Eibling moved to accept all reports as presented. Mr. Hull seconded the motion with all voting aye.

Mr. Schwemer presented his zoning report. He indicated that letters have been sent about noxious weeds for two different property owners.

Resolution 2022-05

Whereas: The Hardin County Budget Commission has presented the proposed rates and amounts of taxation for 2023.

Wetherefore: After review, agree to the rates and amounts as presented.

BeItResolved: Mr. Vermillion motions to approve the resolution with Mr. Eibling seconding.

Roll Call vote: Mr.Vermillion Yes, Mr. Eibling Yes, Mr. Hull Yes. Resolution Adopted.

Discussion was heard in regards to mapping out the front portion of the Salem Cemetery. The trustees noted that since the front section of the cemetery has been checked by the use of ground penetrating radar and determined that no old burials exist, the board would like to have the Hardin County Engineer’s office survey the ground to layout burial lots. Mr.Vermillion moved to contact the Hardin County Engineer to perform the needed survey work. Mr. Eibling seconded with all voting aye.

In planning for 2023 budget, the trustees had discussion regarding the possibility of constructing a new township storage building for the purpose of housing township equipment and the recycling operation. The board asked the fiscal officer to contact the Hardin County Prosecutor’s office in order to receive information about the legalities of constructing a storage barn.

The following voucher packets were presented for board approval and payment:
